

Why my mind is bothered thus?
Why I look to fulfill my urges deeper?
The god only can save me!
The sweet flower of the woman is forbidden to no one
No one can have affection today
for my difficult heart does not bleed toxic gas!

My total need for love rises with a little fall of pain in my small soft brain!

Five for hundreds of people try they hardest to earn the world.
But why their fight is not alone?
Since they only die groundless.
